

VOLUNTEER BUILDING CAMBODIA

Newsletter
Edition 20
July 2016

This month Sinn and Jason were lucky enough to be invited to Phnom Penh for the International Buddhist Conference on Regional and World Peace, organised by our friends at Buddhism for Education of Cambodia. One of the important messages amongst all of the great guest speakers, wisdom

“ and performances they witnessed was that; Negativity, in all of its forms, ” breeds negativity...”

International Buddhist Conference in Phnom Penh

Our past volunteer, Karl Maughan, has launched his own cow-breeding programme with the support of our builder, Det, and his family! Karl is breeding and selling cows (and Det and family are looking after them) for some of our families which will help provide them with an income in the future! Check out the following article:

Karl is also hosting a fundraiser this month where he will be auctioning off our 100th house build and various other items, including but not limited to:

- * Classrooms for our Community Centre
- * 2 nights' accommodation at 2 different venues
- * Staff wages for 12 months
- * Shark cage diving
